Expectations

Early morning work is completed each morning between 8:45am and 9:00am. Activities will address gaps in learning and any pre-teaching.

Please ensure all children bring a water bottle to school. All uniform, water bottles and snack pots need to be clearly labelled with your child's name.

We have high expectations of the work the children will complete this year, ensuring they are ready for Year 3. Any concerns we have will be communicated with parents to ensure we can best support the children.

What will we be teaching this year?

Maths & Mastering Number	English	Handwriting	RE
PSHE/RSE	Science	Computing	Art/Design
History/Geography	PE	Master Readers and Phonics	Music

Maths

- We follow the White Rose Scheme of Work. Children will be supported as well as challenged.
- We will continue to use Numbots to support children's mathematical skills.
- We will be doing Mastering Number to support all children's fluency in mathematics

Handwriting: Please ensure children form letters as well as numerals correctly

Reading: Please read each evening and record in diaries

PE

- PE this year will take place on a Monday and Friday.
- Monday will be outdoor PE and Friday will be indoor PE.
- The School's uniform policy asks that children wear their school shoes to school and bring their trainers with them. St Francis also has a no earing policy which includes non-PE days.

Homework

Reading: Please read with your child each night for 15 minutes. Please record in this in their diaries as his will be monitored.

Numbots and TTRS: Please continue to encourage your children to log in and complete 12 minutes of Numbots and 10 minutes of TTRS each week.

Rewards

- Children will be rewarded with praise and House Points. At the end of each week, the House Points are added together to establish the overall winning house for the House Cup.

- During Celebration Assembly, two children from each class who have produced outstanding work that week and met our school values will be presented with a certificate from the head teacher in front of the entire school.

- We use Class Dojo to reward ready, respectful and safe behaviour in class.

Snack

Children can enjoy their snacks during morning play. The school provide fruit, which changes each day, however you are allowed to provide your own fruit snack or vegetable snack in a labelled container. This should not include roll ups, crackers, yoghurts, rice cakes etc.

Communication

- Class emails will be sent via Arbor
- School newsletter (general)
- Diaries: a written note can be passed on but ensure the children know to show us.
- For urgent messages via email please contact the office: office@stfrancis.surrey.sch.uk
- Phone: call the office and they will pass the message to the teacher.
- After school: quick questions or to arrange a time to speak to the teacher at length

Any Questions?

Thank you all for listening and attending the Year Two Meet the Teacher. You will now have time to go into your child's class to have a look at their new learning environment and ask your class teacher any questions you may have. Alternatively, you can email class teacher through the office.
