24th September 2021

Value of the month – Perseverance

Dear Parents and Carers

The sun has been shining and the week has flown by. The children are working hard, their behaviour is impeccable as usual and we are proud of them all.

Covid

Please be mindful that infections have been rising in the local areas and schools. Please be vigilant and ensure children showing Covid symptoms stay off school and that they have PCR test. A letter was sent out via email yesterday (23/9/21) to all parents giving advice and the Government/NHS links. The office team are available to support with any queries you may have.

PTA AGM

Do join us at our PTA AGM is on Wednesday September 29th 7pm for 7.30pm start.

All are welcome to come along at 7pm, time for drinks and nibbles and to hear about how you can support our PTA in the coming year.

Open Morning Events for Prospective Parents

We would like to invite prospective parents of children starting primary school in September 2022 to the following event:- Friday 1st October 2021

The Headteacher will speak at 10:45am & 11:45am this will be followed by a tour of the school.

Due to Covid restrictions spaces are limited. Please telephone the School Office on 01883-342005 to confirm your attendance. We look forward to welcoming you on the 1st October 2021.

If you are a parent at the school, you do not have to attend this event to apply.

Mrs Wheeler and the office are happy to help you with any questions you may have. We hope to offer further dates soon.

House points

Well done to Anne Line for winning this week's house points trophy and to all the Children who were awarded certificates at this week's Celebration Assembly.

Best wishes,
Mrs Wheeler & Staff
